

ACTIVITIES, CLUBS, AND PROGRAMS FOR SCHOOL YEAR 2008-2009

ACTIVITY, CLUB OR PROGRAM	SPONSOR (S)	BRIEF DESCRIPTION	MEETING DATE/TIME
Actor's Club mdouglas210@aol.com	Maria Douglas	Students will explore theater by engaging in games of improvisation and pantomime; develop voice projection through vocal exercises: Write, direct and produce original skits while learning basic stage directions. Students will also be introduced to special techniques in preparation for future auditions.	Tuesdays beginning October 7 th and continuing for six weeks.
Art Club sara.frank@reg5.k12.ct.us	Sara Frank	Students will work together on projects to beautify our school building, paint picnic tables, make a tile mural, and help paint scenery for the school play. Seasonal art projects are also planned throughout The school year.	Meets on first and third Thursdays until late bus.
Chamber Singers brennan.orie@reg5.k12.ct.us	Brennan Orie	Chamber Singers are an auditioned group available to all Chorus, Band, and Strings students. Students will perform various types of choral works in either 2 or 3 part settings. The group can range from 10 to 20 members.	Thursday after school, until approximately 3:15PM
Charmettes brennan.orie@reg5.k12.ct.us	Brennan Orie	Charmettes are a select group of 8 th grade students. All students involved in a musical ensemble are welcome to audition. This group generally consists of 3 to 6 members and a wide variety of both accompanied and cappella choral music is performed.	Thursdays from 3:15PM until late bus.
Computer Crafts Club carolyn.stanley@reg5.k12.ct.us	Carolyn Stanley	Students will be able to use the computers for creative projects. They can have their pictures taken and digitally manipulate them, search the web for craft ideas and make them (ex. book marks, magnets, etc.), and play educational games (ex. Dr. Brain, Monopoly, Lego, etc.). Students may also experiment with programs such as Photo Shop, Illustrator, Flash, Dream Weaver, and Fireworks.	Thursdays after school, until late bus.
Guitar Club brennan.orie@reg5.k12.ct.us	Brennan Orie	This music club, open to any and all students, is about everything "guitar". Students will learn about guitars, guitarists, will talk "guitar", and will learn to play the guitar through a variety of music across the genres. This is a club open to everyone, beginners, and experts alike.	Tuesday afternoons, until late bus arrives.
Jazz Band robert.fragione@reg5.k12.ct.us	Robert Fragione	Open to all Band, Chorus, and String students. Auditions are required.	Begins in late October.
Leo Club barbra.guilliotis@reg5.k12.ct.us marika.wissink@reg5.k12.ct.us	Barbra Guilliotis, Marika Wissink	A Community Service organization affiliated with the Lions Club of Bethany.	2 nd and 4 th Thursday after school until 3:15PM.
Literary Magazine sue.hill@reg5.k12.ct.us meredith.kohlbrenner@reg5.k12.ct.us	Sue Hill, Meredith Kohlbrenner	Students will create a publication of exceptional creative writing submitted by the student body. Students will collaborate in compiling and editing such pieces for issue. Both seventh and eighth graders who take an interest in creative writing or editing are encouraged to join.	Once a week, Tuesday or Thursday.
Math Club sarah.hanley@reg5.k12.ct.us michelle.Martinik@reg5.k12.ct.us	Sarah Hanley, Michelle Martinik	Students will prepare for and compete in math tournaments. They will become involved with numerous math activities via computer at the discretion of the teacher.	Meets throughout the year.
Newspaper tammy.saisa@reg5.k12.ct.us	Tammy Saisa	The news paper will meet every Thursday after school.	Thursday after School.
Role-Playing Games Club tom.snyder@reg5.k12.ct.us	Tom Snyder	All students interested in role-playing are invited to play on scheduled late bus days in the winter.	Late bus days in the winter.

ACTIVITIES, CLUBS, AND PROGRAMS FOR SCHOOL YEAR 2008-2009

ACTIVITY, CLUB OR PROGRAM	SPONSOR (S)	BRIEF DESCRIPTION	MEETING DATE/TIME
SADD (Students Against Destroying Dreams) jenna.derosa@reg5.k12.ct.us jpercyc@ci.woodbridge.ct.us	Jenna DeRosa, Jayne Percy	This club is open to any and all students who wish to promote healthy living by not smoking, drinking, or doing drugs. This group will help to promote these ideas in the school by different activities throughout the school year.	Meetings will begin in October during the school day.
Student Council kathy.habersnang@reg5.k12.ct.us erica.gamble@reg5.k12.ct.us	Kathy Habersang, Erica Gamble	Student Governing Body	1 st Tuesday of the month.
Student Library Advisory Board faith.miller@reg5.k12.ct.us	Faith Miller	Students will discuss the books they are reading and write reviews of recommended books to be posted on the library web site.	Tuesdays until 3:00PM
Ultimate Club tom.snyder@reg5.k12.ct.us	Tom Snyder	Scheduled for the fall and spring. All students interested in playing Ultimate Frisbee are invited on announced late bus days.	On announced late bus days.
Walking Club paul.yashenko@reg5.k12.ct.us	Paul Yashenko	Students walk as a group outdoors or inside depending on the weather.	Tuesdays and Thursdays 3:00PM -3:30PM.
Woodshop/Woodworking peter.fuller@reg5.k12.ct.us	Peter Fuller	14 student limit. Participants will first be instructed on general shop and power tool safety. Project work will consist of individualized items that can be brought home by the student (birdhouses, feeders, games, puzzles, CD/DVD racks, etc.) or larger projects that will be donated to the school (picnic tables, benches, etc.) All students will be required sign injury waiver sheets before admittance. Additional funding may be required for materials and supplies when producing items donated to the school.	Tuesdays & Thursdays after school.
Writer's Guild gail.huitt@reg5.k12.ct.us	Gail Huitt	Students who love to write creatively will use the work of published authors and other resources to create their own work of fantasy, memoir or non – fiction. These works will be published in beautiful hard bound books, and will become lifetime keepsakes. There is a cost of $8.90 for the hardback binding.	Every other Thursday beginning September 25. Exact dates to be given at the first meeting.
Yearbook thomas.norton@reg5.k12.ct.us	Tom Norton	Production and distribution of "Reflections" The Amity-Bethany Yearbook.	