

AP Psychology:

For the summer of 2020, there is no required AP Psychology summer work. Instead, please take the time to make and strengthen meaningful social connections with your friends and family. One of the things you will learn during the year is why that is so important!