Prohibition Against Sexual Harassment

The Amity Regional School District No. 5 (District or ARSD) recognizes that sexual harassment, including sexual assault, is unlawful sex discrimination. The Board of Education (Board) prohibits sex discrimination/sexual harassment in the District's education program or activities. Education program or activity includes locations, events, or circumstances over which the school exercises substantial control over both the respondent (alleged perpetrator of sexual harassment) and the context in which the sexual harassment occurs. In addition to occurring on school grounds, sexual harassment may potentially occur off campus, in places or situations where athletic and extracurricular activities occur, on field trips, on the school bus, at school-related conferences or through use of school technology.

Schools shall respond to sexual harassment occurring in the District's education program or activities for which they have "actual knowledge." "Actual knowledge" means notice of sexual harassment or an allegation of sexual harassment brought to the attention of the Title IX Coordinator, any official of the school who has authority to institute corrective measures on the behalf of the school, as well as to any other employee of an elementary and secondary school.

Sexual harassment may take the form of student-on-student, employee-on-student, employee-on-employee, student-on-employee sexual harassment, or may be perpetrated against students or employees by third parties under the control of the District. Students who engage in proven sexual harassment may be subject to discipline, up to and including expulsion. Employees who engage in proven sexual harassment may be subject to disciplinary action, up to and including termination, as well as other action required under the law.

Definition of Sexual Harassment for the Purposes of Title IX

Sexual harassment is conduct on the basis of sex that satisfies one or more of the following:

- (i) A school employee conditioning an education benefit or service on participation in unwelcome sexual conduct (i.e. quid pro quo)
- (ii) Unwelcome conduct that a reasonable person would determine as so severe, pervasive, and objectively offensive that it effectively denies a person equal access to the school's education program or activity;
- (iii) "Sexual assault" as defined in 20 U.S.C. 1092 (f)(6)(A)(v)(the Clery Act), "dating violence" as defined 34 U.S.C. 12291(a)(10), "domestic violence" as defined in 34 U.S.C. 12291(a)(8), or "stalking" as defined in 34 U.S.C. 12291(a)(3) (the Violence Against Women Act (VAMA)).

Prohibition Against Sexual Harassment

Examples of sexual harassment may include, but are not limited to:

- pressure for sexual activity
- repeated remarks with sexual or sexually demeaning implications
- unwelcome or inappropriate touching
- sexual assault
- suggesting or demanding sexual involvement accompanied by implied or explicit threats concerning a student's grades or academic standing or an employee's employment status
- telling lewd jokes or sharing stories about sexual experiences – even if not directed at you but done in your presence to cause you discomfort
- sending unwanted suggestive or lewd emails, letters, or other communications or sharing images of a sexual nature around the workplace or displaying posters, items, or screensavers of a sexual nature
- repeatedly asking for dates despite being rebuffed
- making sexually offensive gestures or facial expressions
- dating violence or stalking

Other Definitions

‘Complainant’ is defined as a person who is alleged to be the victim of conduct that could constitute sexual harassment.

“Respondent” is defined as a person who is alleged to be the perpetrator of conduct that could constitute sexual harassment.

“Supportive measures” are defined as non-disciplinary, non-punitive, individualized services, offered as appropriate and without charge to a complainant or respondent before or after the filing of a formal complaint or where no complaint has been filed.

Title IX Coordinator

The Superintendent of Schools designates and authorizes the Coordinator of Pupil Services to be the District's Title IX Coordinator. This individual shall be given the title of and be referred to as the Title IX Coordinator and is responsible for ensuring compliance across the school district with Title IX, corresponding state law, and applicable board policy concerning sex discrimination/sexual harassment.

Prohibition Against Sexual Harassment

Applicants for admission and employment, students, parents or legal guardians of elementary and secondary school students, employees, and all unions shall be notified of the name or title, office address, electronic mail address, and telephone number of the Title IX Coordinator.

The Title IX Coordinator's contact information shall be posted on the District's website and included in student and employee handbooks and published in other locations as deemed appropriate.

Reporting Sexual Harassment

Any person, including, but not limited to, students, their parents or guardians, employees, bystanders or third parties (whether or not the person is the alleged victim), may report sex sexual harassment, including sexual assault, occurring in the District's education program or activities. Reporting may occur in person, by mail, by telephone or by electronic mail, using the contact information provided for the Title IX Coordinator, or by any other means that results in the Title IX Coordinator receiving the person's verbal or written report. Reports may be made at any time including during non-business hours.

A formal complaint is defined as a document filed by a complainant or signed by the Title IX Coordinator alleging sexual harassment against an individual and requesting that the school investigate the alleged sexual harassment. In an instance where the Title IX Coordinator signs the complaint, the Title IX Coordinator is not a party to the complaint nor is such action taken on behalf of the complainant.

The Title IX Coordinator will make forms available for both informal reports and formal complaints of sexual harassment. Additionally, such forms will be posted on the District's website. Informal reports are permissible and may be brought by any person. However, only a complainant and the District's Title IX Coordinator may file a formal complaint. All formal complaints will be investigated. Supportive measures shall be offered to a complainant with or without the filing of a formal complaint.

There is no time limit on a complainant's decision to file a formal complaint, but complainants are encouraged to promptly report incidents of sexual harassment and/or to file a formal complaint.

Prohibition Against Sexual Harassment

Response including Supportive Measures

Any school employee with actual knowledge of sex discrimination/sexual harassment shall promptly inform the District's Title IX Coordinator. The failure to do so may be grounds for disciplinary action.

Upon actual knowledge of sexual harassment, the Title IX Coordinator will promptly contact the complainant to advise and discuss with the complainant: 1.) the availability of supportive measures with or without the filing of a formal complaint, 2.) the right to file a formal complaint, and 3.) how to file a formal complaint.

A complainant, as well as a respondent, shall be offered free, individualized "supportive measures" (e.g. counseling, course-related adjustments, modification of work or class schedules, escort services, increased security/monitoring of certain areas, mutual restrictions on contact between the parties) designed to restore or preserve equal access to education with or without a formal complaint. These, as well as other measures, may be part of a final remedy.

Upon filing a formal complaint, the complainant will be provided with a copy of this policy and its grievance procedures.

Written notice shall be provided to the respondent and the complainant advising that a formal complaint has been filed. The respondent shall be entitled to a presumption of innocence during investigation of the complaint. Both parties will be treated fairly throughout the investigation and shall be entitled to an unbiased investigator who has not prejudged the matter being investigated.

Complaints that fail to allege a violation of Title IX shall be dismissed without investigation. This does not preclude the school administration from investigating or addressing the underlying conduct under relevant codes of conduct or board policy.

Emergency Removal/Administrative Leave

An emergency removal of a respondent from the education program or activity is permissible, provided that the District conducts an individualized safety and risk analysis and determines that emergency removal is necessary in order to protect a student or other individual from an immediate threat to physical health or safety and notice and an opportunity to challenge the decision is provided. This does not modify any rights under the Individuals with Disabilities

Prohibition Against Sexual Harassment

Education Act (IDEA), Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, or the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA).

An employee-respondent may be placed on administrative leave during the pendency of a grievance process.

Informal Resolution

At any point in the formal complaint process the Districtwide Title IX Coordinator, in his/her discretion, may offer to facilitate an informal resolution option such as mediation or restorative justice.

Both parties must give voluntary, informed written consent.

Either party has a right to withdraw consent at any time, in which case the formal investigation shall proceed.

The informal resolution process shall not be available if the complainant/victim is a student and the respondent is an employee.

Grievance Procedures

The District will promptly and thoroughly investigate all formal complaints of sexual harassment in accordance with established grievance procedures.

District grievance procedures shall be established in the form of a regulation accompanying this policy.

The grievance procedure shall be used for the reporting and investigation of and response to a formal complaint of sexual harassment in the District's education program and activities against a person in the United States.

The District's grievances procedures shall be designed to comply with the regulation under Title IX as promulgated by the U.S. Department of Education, as it may be amended from time to time. Among other required provisions, the grievance procedures shall establish standards for fairness and equity including a requirement that the decision-maker not be the same individual as the Title IX Coordinator or the investigator, explain how to file a complaint, address required notice, set out timelines for various components of the investigation and adjudication process, establish and explain grounds for the dismissal of a complaint and provide and explain the appeal process available to both parties, include a presumption of innocence for the respondent, state the evidence standard to be used to determine responsibility, and require objective evaluation of all available evidence.

Prohibition Against Sexual Harassment

Training

Training shall be provided to Title IX personnel in accordance with the regulation under Title IX as promulgated by the U.S. Department of Education, as it may be amended from time to time. Additional training may be provided to all school employees as deemed advisable.

Training materials used to train Title IX personnel shall be posted on the District's website.

Prohibition Against Retaliation

Retaliation against any party, witness, or other participant to the grievance process is prohibited. Retaliation may form a basis for a complaint under this policy. The charging of a person with a code of conduct violation based upon a person making a materially false statement in bad faith in an investigation is not considered retaliatory.

Dissemination, Posting, and Discussion of Policy

This policy, along with its accompanying regulation/grievance procedure, shall appear in the Student Handbook, be discussed with students at least annually and more often as needed, be posted in prominent and accessible locations in each school building and in the Board of Education offices, and be published on the District's website along with the name/title and contact information for the Title IX Coordinator.

Record Keeping

The District must keep records related to reports of alleged sexual harassment for a minimum of seven years including investigation records, disciplinary sanctions, remedies, appeals, and records of any action taken including supportive measures. Additionally, Districts must also keep for a minimum of seven years any materials used to train Title IX Coordinators, investigators, decision-makers, and any employee designed to facilitate an informal process.

Alternate Complaint Procedures

In addition, or as an alternative to the filing of a sex discrimination/sexual harassment complaint through the District's grievance procedure, a person may choose to file a complaint with the Office for Civil Rights of the United States Department of Education.

Statement of Protected Rights

Application of this policy and its grievance procedure shall not be interpreted to restrict rights protected under the U.S. Constitution, including the right to free speech, to be free from self-incrimination, and to due process of law.

Prohibition Against Sexual Harassment: Reponse to Reports of Sexual Harassment and Grievance Procedures for Formal Complaints

The Amity Regional School District No. 5 (ARSD or District) will respond to all incidents of sexual harassment: (a) of which it has actual knowledge, and (b) that occurs within the school's education and program activity and c) occurs against a person in the United States.

“Actual knowledge” means notice of sexual harassment or an allegation of sexual harassment brought to the attention of the Title IX Coordinator, any official of the school who has authority to institute corrective measures on the behalf of the school, as well as to any employee of an elementary and secondary school. Accordingly, any ARSD employee with actual knowledge that sexual harassment is occurring shall notify the District's Title IX Coordinator.

Education program or activity includes locations, events, or circumstances over which the school exercises substantial control over both the respondent (perpetrator of sex discrimination/sexual harassment) and the context in which the sex discrimination/sexual harassment occurs. In addition to occurring on school grounds, sex discrimination/sexual harassment may potentially occur off campus, in places or situations where athletic and extracurricular activities occur, on field trips, on the school bus, at school-related conferences, or through use of school technology, depending upon whether the ARSD exercises control over both the respondent and the context in which the sexual harassment occurs.

Reporting of Sexual Harassment

Informal Reports

Any person, including parent/guardians, students, employees and third parties, may report sexual harassment occurring in the ARSD's education program or activity. Reporting may be in person, by mail, telephone, or by electronic mail, using the contact information provided for the Title IX Coordinator. Reports may be made during non-business hours. Reports may be made anonymously. When a reporter fails to identify a specific complainant (victim of sexual harassment) or to identify him/herself as the reporter, the ARSD's response may be limited. Informal complaints will be accepted in any form; however, forms for making both informal reports and formal complaints are available on the ARSD website and from the Title IX Coordinator.

Formal Complaint

While third parties may make informal reports of sexual harassment occurring in the ARSD's education program or activities, a formal complaint may only be made by a complainant or be signed by the Title IX Coordinator, triggering an investigation. A formal complaint is a document filed by a complainant or signed by the Title IX Coordinator alleging sexual harassment and requesting that an investigation commence.

Students

Prohibition Against Sexual Harassment: Reponse to Reports of Sexual Harassment and Grievance Procedures for Formal Complaints

While there is no time limit for making an informal report or filing a formal complaint of sexual harassment, reporters/complainants are encouraged to promptly report incidents of sexual harassment to avoid the potential loss of evidence, a lapse in the memories of parties or witness, or the unavailability of persons key to an investigation. The ARSD understands that a victim may decide not to report sexual harassment, to file a formal complaint, and/or may decide to wait to come forward with a report/formal complaint for a variety of reasons. The ARSD respects complainants' decisions. However, the Title IX Coordinator has discretion to sign a formal complaint that initiates the grievance process where necessary to avoid deliberate indifference to sexual harassment even without a formal complaint from the complainant.

Forms for making both informal reports and formal complaints are available on the ARSD's website and from the Title IX Coordinator.

Supportive measures will be offered to a complainant with or without a formal complaint.

Response Including Supportive Measures

Upon actual knowledge of sex discrimination/harassment, the Title IX Coordinator will promptly contact the complainant to advise and discuss with the complainant (1) the availability of supportive measures (with or without a formal complaint) and consider the complainant's wishes with respect to supportive measures, (2) the right to file a formal complaint, and (3) how to file a formal complaint. The complainant shall be provided with a copy of the Board's policy prohibiting discrimination and these regulations containing its grievance procedure.

With or without the filing of a formal complaint, a complainant as well as a respondent shall be offered, free of charge, non-disciplinary, non-punitive individualized supportive measures. Supportive measures are designed to restore or preserve equal access to the education program or activity, protect the safety of all parties and the educational environment, and deter sexual harassment, without unreasonably burdening the other party.

Supportive measures may include, but are not be limited to:

- Counseling
- Course adjustments
- Modification of work
- Modification of class schedules
- Escorts
- Increased monitoring
- Restrictions on contact

Students

Prohibition Against Sexual Harassment: Reponse to Reports of Sexual Harassment and Grievance Procedures for Formal Complaints

Supportive measures may be modified at any time as appropriate based upon changed or evolving circumstances and may be offered before or after the filing of a formal complaint or where no complaint has been filed at all. Supportive measures may also be part of any ultimate remedy.

No disciplinary action or other punitive measure for sexual harassment shall be taken against a respondent without first following the grievance procedures set out herein and a determination of responsibility has been made. If the respondent has engaged in conduct other than sexual harassment in violation of a code of conduct or similar restriction, the respondent may be disciplined for such action(s) notwithstanding an ongoing investigation.

Emergency Removal/Administrative Leave

With or without the filing of a formal complaint, an emergency removal of a respondent from the education program or activity is permissible provided that the District conducts an individualized safety and risk analysis and determines that emergency removal is necessary in order to protect a student or other individual from an immediate threat to physical health or safety and provides notice and an opportunity to challenge the decision. This does not modify any rights under the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act (IDEA), Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, or the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA).

A non-student employee respondent may be placed on administrative leave during the pendency of an investigation.

Dismissals of Complaints

Mandatory Dismissal

A complaint of sexual harassment must be dismissed if:

- 1.) it fails to allege conduct that constitutes sexual harassment, even if proved;
- 2.) the alleged conduct did not occur in a District activity or program; or
- 3.) the alleged conduct did not occur against a person in the United States.

Students

Prohibition Against Sexual Harassment: Reponse to Reports of Sexual Harassment and Grievance Procedures for Formal Complaints

Permissive Dismissal

A complaint of sexual harassment may be dismissed if:

- 1.) the complainant notifies the Title IX Coordinator that he/she wishes to withdraw the complaint or an allegation;
- 2.) the respondent's enrollment or employment ends;
- 3.) specific circumstances exist that prevent the District from gathering enough evidence to reach a determination, i.e. significant passage of time between the formal complaint and the alleged conduct; failure of a complainant to cooperate with the grievance process.

The complainant and the respondent will promptly and simultaneously be provided written notice of the dismissal of a complaint or allegation including the reasons for the mandatory or discretionary dismissal and an explanation of appeal rights.

Grievance Procedures (to be used for formal complaints only)

Grievance Procedures consistent with the regulations under Title IX as promulgated by the U.S. Department of Education and the principles of due process, the Amity Regional School District No. 5 Board of Education (BOE) adopts the following Grievance Procedures responsive to formal complaints.

a. Notice

Written notice of the complaint shall be provided to the respondent prior to an initial interview with the respondent.

Written notice provided to the respondent shall include:

- notice of the Grievance Procedure, including any informal resolution process;
- notice of the allegations in sufficient detail to allow the respondent to prepare a response; a statement that the respondent is presumed innocent and responsibility will be determined at the conclusion of the Grievance Process;
- notice of the right to have an advisor to inspect/review evidence; and
- notice of any provision in applicable codes of conduct that prohibit knowingly making false statements or providing false information in the grievance process.

Likewise, the complainant shall be provided written notice of a formal complaint.

Prohibition Against Sexual Harassment: Reponse to Reports of Sexual Harassment and Grievance Procedures for Formal Complaints

Additional written notice shall be provided to the parties in the event of additional or revised allegations of sexual harassment.

b. Investigation

The ARSD will promptly investigate all formal complaints of sexual harassment in accordance with these grievance procedures. The ARSD will designate personnel to investigate formal complaints, and such personnel shall be trained in accordance with this regulation. The person designated as the investigator may not be the same person as the Decision-Maker.

The respondent shall be entitled to a presumption of “innocence” until the investigation is complete. Both parties are to be treated fairly throughout the investigation and shall be entitled to an unbiased investigator who has not prejudged the matter being investigated.

The burden of proof shall be by a preponderance of the evidence. Both parties shall be provided with an equal opportunity to present facts and witnesses and other inculpatory or exculpatory evidence.

Each party shall have the opportunity to select an advisor of the parties “choice.”

The school shall send written notice to both the complainant and respondent of any investigative interviews, meetings or hearing.

The complainant and respondent and their advisors, if applicable, shall be provided evidence directly related to the allegations (electronic or hard copy) with at least ten (10) days to inspect, review, and respond to the evidence. Such evidence shall not be further disseminated by the parties. The parties and advocates shall not further disseminate such evidence and may be required to execute a non-disclosure agreement.

The complainant and respondent shall not be prohibited from discussing the allegations or gather evidence, i.e. no “gag” orders. All parties First Amendment rights shall be honored.

Confidential information such as medical or psychological reports cannot be used as part of the investigation without written voluntary consent of the party.

Evidence of the complainant’s prior sexual activity is not relevant and may not be introduced except to prove that someone other than the respondent committed the alleged misconduct or is offered to prove consent.

Students

Prohibition Against Sexual Harassment: Reponse to Reports of Sexual Harassment and Grievance Procedures for Formal Complaints

Supportive measures shall be offered to the complainant or respondent pending a final resolution after consultation with them.

c. Investigative Report

At the conclusion of the investigation, the investigator conducting the investigation shall prepare a report summarizing the evidence, shall provide a copy to the complainant and respondent, and give the parties ten (10) days to respond. Each party shall be provided an opportunity to submit written, relevant questions that a party wants asked of the other party, or a witness, and provide each party with the answers to each such questions.

d. Decision-Maker (may not be the same person as Title IX Coordinator or the Investigator)

The Decision-Maker, the Director of Pupil Personnel Services, must review the evidence applying the preponderance of the evidence standard and issue a written determination regarding responsibility with findings of fact, conclusions as to whether the conduct alleged occurred; the rational for the result as to each allegation; and any discipline imposed on the respondent, and any other remedies to be provided to the complainant to restore or preserve equal access to the District's education program or activity

The written determination will be sent simultaneously to the parties along with an explanation of how to file an appeal.

Remedies

Remedies will be provided to a complainant when a respondent it found responsible. Remedies shall be designed to maintain the complainant's equal access to education.

The range of remedies in case a violation is found can range from counseling to serious discipline, up to and including expulsion/termination.

The range of remedies depends on the circumstances but may include previously provided supportive measures, grade changes; the opportunity to retake a test or resubmit an assignment; reassignment of class; school-based counseling; and reinstatement to a team or activity as well as other appropriate measures.

The Title IX Coordinator shall oversee the effectiveness of the remedies toward ensuring no continued discrimination occurs.

- 2.) newly discovered evidence that could affect the outcome
- 3.) the Title IX personnel (Title IX coordinator, investigator/decision maker, etc.) had a conflict of interest or bias that altered the outcome

Retaliation

Informal Resolution

At any point in the formal complaint process, the Title IX Coordinator, in his/her discretion, may offer an informal resolution option such as mediation or restorative justice. The staff member appointed to conduct the informal resolution shall be unbiased and receive appropriate training.

Both parties must give voluntary, informed written consent.

Either party has a right to withdraw consent at any time, in which case the formal investigation shall proceed.

The informal resolution process shall not be available if the complainant/victim is a student and the respondent is an employee.

Informal resolution may encompass a broad range of conflict resolution strategies, including, but not limited to, arbitration, mediation or restorative justice.

Confidentiality

The identities of the complainants, respondents, and witnesses, except as provided herein or as required by law, including FERPA, shall not be disclosed.
